

Spring 2019 Trip Descriptions

All return times are approximate and depend on group pace, traffic, and weather. We do our best to return on time but sometimes things happen

Registration for trips after Spring Break will open on March 4th

Shenandoah Cabin Camping April 26th – 27th Registration ends April 24th

Looking for a comfy and fun night of camping? We are leading a cabin camping trip through beautiful Shenandoah National Park. We will spend the night at Corbin cabin in the park and day hike around this area.

Cost: $45 which covers transportation, group gear (cooking gear, stoves, etc.), dinner Saturday, breakfast Sunday, and Sunday lunch

What to wear: weather appropriate clothing and good walking or hiking shoes (closed-toed sneakers or boots)

What to bring:

Backpacking pack* (big enough for your personal equipment as well as your share of group gear and food)

Sleeping Pad*

Sleeping Bag appropriate for the temperatures*

2 liter-sized water bottles

Headlamp or flashlight*

Wool or synthetic socks for each day plus a spare pair (avoid cotton)

Rain gear* (no umbrellas)

Plastic bowl and eating utensil* (Tupperware works well)

Clothing appropriate for the weather (synthetics are best, cotton is strongly discouraged except for t-shirts/underwear)

Good shoes or boots

Sunscreen

VERY minimal necessary toiletries (contact solution, toothbrush, etc.)

Lunch/snacks for the first day

Optional knife

*These items are available to rent individually or you can rent all of them by paying the additional $10 gear fee

When/Where: Meet at Skyline Fitness Center at 8am. We will go over equipment and pack up here and then drive out to the trail. We will spend the day hiking and cabin camp for the evening. We will finish the hike the following morning and return to campus on Sunday afternoon.
